Topic List for Bachelor and Master Theses at the Center for Human Resource Management (CEHRM)

Please read the "Guidelines for Writing a Bachelor and Master Theses at the Center for Human Resource Management \(CEHRM\)" to find out how you can apply for a topic. In particular, please fill out the application form / Bewerbungsformular and send it along with an overview of your academic achievements to your preferred thesis supervisor. We offer a selection of possible topics and supervisors. You may also submit your own topic. Either way, you will be asked to propose your own research question and potential methodology when applying for a topic.

Please also check the requirements carefully and make sure you provide all the information we need to process your application. To write your master's thesis at CEHRM, you must have attended or be enrolled in the mandatory course "Strategic Human Resource Management". In addition, you must have attended or be enrolled in at least one of the master's level elective courses offered through CEHRM.

Unless otherwise stated, theses can be written in German or English. We expect students who start in the fall term 2024 to submit their thesis by mid-December 2024 at the latest, and students who start in spring term 2024 to submit their thesis by mid-May 2025 at the latest. In the event of questions please contact Delia Meyer via e-mail: delia.meyer@unilu.ch.
