

Colloquium Programme

Wednesdays, 17.15 – 18.45; Room 3.B52

02.03. Prof. Filipe Calvão (Genf): Property Regimes and the Qualities of Resources: The Labor of Transparency and Opacity in Angola's Mining Industry.

Followed by drinks to greet the new semester

09.03. Willem Church, MA (Luzern): Ambiguous Commodification: Selling Customary Land on the Borders of Urbanizing Goroka, Papua New Guinea.

16.03. Dr. Alexander Knorr (München): Digital Ethnography.

23.03. Philippine Studies Network & NoiP: Philippine Movie Night I: „Anita's Last Cha-Cha“ by Sigrid Andrea Bernardo

06.04. Philippine Studies Network & NoiP: Philippine Movie Night II: „Transit“ by Hannah Espia

13.04. Dr. Roderick Galam (Berlin): Manila's 'Utility Men': Temporal Agency and Social Adulthood through Servitude?

20.04. Prof. Brigitta Hauser-Schäublin (Göttingen): Politics of World Heritage: idealistic concepts and shocking realities.

04.05. Philipp Schäfer, MA (Konstanz): Governing migration in urban localities.

11.05. Alexander Blechschmidt, MA (Zürich): “Our government is married to the church:” Nonreligious activists and the issue of secularism in the Philippines

18.05. Dr. Peter Rohrbacher (Wien): Father Wilhelm Schmidt SVD in exile: Wehrmacht deserters and intelligence services, 1943–1945

25.05. Dr. Jonathan Mair (University of Manchester): Religion, ethics and epistemic norms: explorations in the anthropology of belief

01.06. Dr. Kelvin E.Y. Low (National University of Singapore): Ethnography and the Sensorium: Theorising the Senses in Everyday Life.

Followed by end of semester party