

Colloquium Program

Wednesdays, 17.15 – 18.45; Room 3.B57

16.09.15	Juan Fernando Palacio Roldán, University of St. Gallen “Understanding Multilateral Diplomacy through Ethnographic Research. The case of Latin America and the WTO” + opening drinks
23.09.15	Alain Viaro, Geneva and Technical University of Vienna „Nias: Road reconstruction and building change after the December 2004 tsunami and the March 2005 earthquake” from a backward island to internet”
30.09.15	Christian Ghasarian, University of Neuchatel „Protections of Natural Resources Through a Sacred Prohibition in Polynesia”
07.10.15	Alessandro Monsutti, IHEID, Geneva „Globalizing Afghanistan: ongoing research”
21.10.15	Mark Goodale, University of Lausanne „Human Rights, Political Economy, and the Penitent Anthropologist”
28.10.15	Jane Cowan, University of Sussex „The Universal Periodic Review: An Anthropological Perspective”
04.11.15	Thomas Hüsken, University of Lucerne „the culture of smuggling and smuggling as culture in the borderland of Egypt and Libya“
11.11.15	Don Gardner, University of Lucerne „Anthropology and cosmopolitanism: justice, love or charity
18.11.15	Rodolfo Maggio, Manchester University “So Much Damn Money”: Sorcery Attacks and Capital Influx in Melanesian Ethnography“
25.11.15	Daniela Dietz, University of Zurich „InDifference. Coexisting in Istanbul“
02.12.15	Daniel Meier, CNRS Grenoble „(B)ordering the edge of the state: a comparison of the South of Lebanon and the Iraqi Kurdistan”
09.12.15	Anusska Derks, University of Zurich „ Fuel Infrastructure - The Social Life of a Cooking Fuel in Hanoi“
16.12.15	Stories or photos from the field: Anthropologists of the Department with surprise anecdotes, pictures and other goodies followed by Christmas drinks