

Colloquium Programme

Wednesdays, 16.15 – 17.45; Room 4.B02

- 21.09. Tobias Schwörer (Luzern): Initial findings from current research on livelihood strategies and decision-making processes in a New Guinea village encompassed by large-scale capitalist projects

- 28.09. Alice Street (Edinburgh): Global health logistics and understandings of space

- 05.10. Rita Kesselring (Basel): Infrastructures of power: energy supply and sociality in a new mining area in Zambia

- 12.10. Roundtable discussion: Fitting long-term fieldwork into a 21st century life

- 19.10. Don Gardner: Semiotics and ethics in social life: Webb Keane's (2015) Ethical life: its natural and social histories

- 26.10. Gabrielle Weichart (Wien): Urban anthropology in "smart" environments in Indonesia

- 02.11. Stefan Leins (Zürich): Reading the market: valuation practices, anticipatory knowledge, and narration among financial analysts.

- 09.11. Discussion: „6 decades and 12 field sites“: Appreciating Fredrik Barth's contribution to anthropology

- 16.11. Olivia Killias (Zürich): On the perils of friendship in The Park: sociality and suspicion in Iranian migration to Malaysia

- 23.11. Johannes Quack (Zürich): Life histories in anthropology (examples from India)

- 30.11 Bettina Beer (Luzern): Gabsongkeg (Papua New Guinea), 2016: a report

- 07.12. Peter Larsen (Luzern): World Heritage and human rights in Vietnam

- 14.12. Werner Egli (Luzern): „In a sense we have always been Christians“: The rapid Christianisation of an indigenous people in eastern Nepal in the light of the new anthropology of Christianity

- 21.12. Various contributors: Photos and memories from fieldwork (followed by Christmas farewell)