

Departmental Research Seminar Program

Room 3.B52 | Tuesday | 16.15 – 17.45

- 19.09.23 Prof. Laurent Dousset (University of Lucerne): Why is every human different? Uncertainty as a heuristic device in Aboriginal Australia
Mit anschließendem Apéro
- 26.09.23 Prof. George-Paul Meiu (University of Basel): Queer objects to the rescue: Intimacy and citizenship in Kenya
- 03.10.23 Dr. Nidhin Donald (University of Lucerne): Family histories and lineage-based associations in Kerala
- 10.10.23 Dr. Asuncion Fresnoza-Flot (Université libre de Bruxelles): Changing intersectional inequalities and marital breakdown: stories of Filipino migrant women in Belgium and the Netherlands
- 17.10.23 Dr. Laura Preissler (University of Lucerne): Estrangement between parents and their adult children in Switzerland
- 24.10.23 Prof. Bettina Beer (University of Lucerne): The silent impact: Matrilateral grandmothers and the ripple effects of marital separations on kin networks in the Philippines
- 31.10.23 Prof. em. Janet Carsten (University of Edinburgh): Those who leave and those who stay: Entangled temporalities of marital uncertainties in Penang, Malaysia
- 07.11.23 Dr. Katja Geisenhainer (University of Frankfurt a.M./University of Vienna): Verwischte Differenzen: zu Formung und Veränderungen von Netzwerken in der deutschsprachigen Ethnologie, 1933 bis 1945
- 21.11.23 Prof. Erdmute Alber (University of Bayreuth): Entangled navigations: changing intergenerational care relations through "education for all" in Benin
- 28.11.23 Franziska Wiest MA (University of Cologne): Is wealth thicker than blood? Superrich families and their wealth in times of conflict
- 05.12.23 Prof. em. Chris Hann (MPI for Social Anthropology Halle): The socialist mode of production in provincial Hungary
- 12.12.23 Prof. Jelena Tošić (University of St. Gallen): (Dis)connections and occluded mobilities: Conjunctural-ethnographic perspectives from post-Yugoslavia